Precious Honey Love:-

Just received your darling Saturday's letter and Tootsie, sure was good that you got a letter that day, especially when you are looking forward for a letter each day. I know how it feels, love, when I don't get my usual letter, so I can assure you, I am always writing so that you can have your mail regularly.

By this time, love dear, you know that I beat Uncle Morris's case and believe me, he sure is tickled. It sure was a nice big case. While I am about it, Toots, I want to tell you upon what I decided insofar as roomsare concerned. Solomon made the offer I gave, and Uncle Morris was tickled. They are going to fix the 3 rooms upstairs, as a regular apartment. Going to have a sink in the kitchen and all the conveniences of a home; paper and paint the walls, and do all that will be necessary. Then they are going to put in a shower in the bathroom, this because they want me, or rather, us, to live there. They assured me that you won't have to come in contact with Aunt Lena, or anyone else, if you don't want to. The upstairs will be ours, our own home, see? Then we will have the use of the bathroom, and practically the whole house. They are going to fix up the garden, and when they do, they are going to set apart a little ground for you to take care of, if you so desire, as a little flower bed. Whatever they raise in the garden, we will get some, such as tomatoes, lettuce, etc. As a matter of fact, if they had told me this in the begining, I wouldn't have looked for anything else. The place is in one of the best sections of the City, a beautiful neighborhood, I assure you, and I am confident you will like it. The rooms are small, but, oh, won't they be comfy and cozy, though. My rent, love, will be $10.00 a month, so you see, how easy it will be for us during the summer months especially. When my practice permits, we will look for larger and better quarters. In the mean time, I will be able to pay off the furniture and will have one of the nicest and cosiest little home, out. You won't have to do any cleaning either, as the girl that lives Uncle Louis, will do all that. Now, tell me, sweetheart, what do you think of it?

Sweetheart, has Mondeau gone into the hospital? Let me know how things are progressing. How are you feeling in health, darling mine? Take good care of yourself, heart?

Must close now, darling with all my love, hugs, and kisses to you, my darling, sweetheart wife, whom I yearn so to see and have with me,

Ever lovingly your hubby

J.
